

Help this family get home after an emergency.

An earthquake happened while this family was away from home! The usual path to their house is blocked. They need your help to find another way.

Sometimes emergencies can make it difficult to get home. Talk to your parents about where you should go if you can't get home in an emergency.